Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1,6 and 10 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being clearly anticipated by Henkenjohann.

See panels 1, chain link part 10-12,27,28, etc., toothed gear 6, drive system 8 and rollers 21-24.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 2-4 and 11 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Henkenjohann in view of Bernardo.

Bernardo discloses plastic slats with foam filling, column 4, lines 24-36. It would have been obvious to modify Henkenjohann to have such panels so as to provide less costly, insulating barrier.

Claims 5,7 and 8 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Henkenjohann in view of Russell et al.

Russell et al discloses a drive system for articulated panels wherein toothed wheel 92 has a gear 104 "attached to a side" thereof and is driven by a drive gear 106. It would have been obvious to modify Henkenjohann to have such a gear system so as to provide a mechanical advantage.

Claim 9 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Henkenjohann in view of Russell et al as applied above and further in view of Bernardo. Bernardo is applied here as above.

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
